SUCCESSOR TO BARNARD

Race for Judgeship Has Narrowed Down Between Commissioner Siddons and Representative McCoy.

PRESIDENT NOT YET COMMITTED

That the President will send to the Senate his selection for the successor to Justice Job Barnard, of the District Suppreme Court, within the next forty-eight hours was reliably reported yesterday. Admittedly the race has narrowed down between District Commissioner Frederick L. Siddons and Representative Walter I. McCoy, of New Jersey. Mr. McCoy's friends have made it plain to the President and the Department of Justice, however, that he would not accept a place on the District bench in the event that Justice Daniel Thew Wright, charges against whom are being investigated by Mr. McCoy, should be ousted on impeachment proceedings. In view of the testimony that has been adduced by the McCoy subcommittee during the hearings, Mr. McCoy's friends do not believe that the House will see fit to order the impeachment of the local Jurist, and they therefore are urging his appointment vigorously.

It can be stated authoritatively that the Department of Justice, under the administration of Attorney General Green.

It can be stated authoritatively that the Department of Justice, under the administration of Attorney General Gregory, so far has followed the policy of former Attorney General McReynolds in withholding indorsement from the Siddons candidacy. Mr. Siddons is the personal choice of President Wilson, who has a strong predisposition to send hiname to the Senate despite the reasons which have actuated the Department of Justice in falling to indorse him. On which have actuated the Department of Justice in failing to indorse him. On the other hand, it was reported on good authority yesterday that the Attorney General, formally or otherwise, has indorsed Representative McCoy in preference to Mr. Siddons.

President Wilson is known to regard Mr. McCoy's candidacy highly. Knowing the New Jersey member well, he would be strongly disposed to appoint him to the District bench, but for a stronger personal desire to present the name of

TO EXTEND RELIEF. Red Cross Will Aid Women and Children Made Destitute by War, The American Red Cross announces that in addition to doing all within its power to ameliorate the suffering of the sick and wounded soldiers and sallors do its utmost to give relief to the women and children and other dependents who have been made destitute and otherwise distressed by the war. The Red Cross will be glad to accept funds designated for use in this particular way and will see that such contributions are so used. Furthermore, it will be pleased to redren's clothing, if absolutely new.

It is believed at Red Cross headquarters that the appeal to the churches throughout the United States, regardless of denomination or creed, to contribute of denomination of creed, to contribute the collections of Peace Sunday, October 4, to the European war relief fund will be productive of substantial returns. The total of European war relief contribution thus far is approximately $250,-
